

Lunenburg County Chamber of Commerce Nominations for Annual Citizen of the Year Award

The Chamber is now accepting your nominations for its Citizen of the Year Award for 2017. Nominate the citizen that you believe deserves recognition for their achievements and contributions to the local community. You may nominate more than one citizen and you may nominate yourself, if you feel you merit consideration for this award. The deadline for nominations is 4:00 p.m. on Friday, November 3.

The Chamber will consider individuals that have supported and advanced the interest of the business community and will evaluate nominees based on the following criteria:

- Voluntary efforts beyond business/professional responsibilities to advance the business community.
- Effective support within the community for the establishment of new businesses.
- Demonstrated efforts to improve conditions in the business community, not solely for individual personal advancement.
- Other accomplishments demonstrating the nominee's merit as an effective advocate for business interests.

The Nominating Committee will ask you to attend the Annual Meeting & Banquet in January (the cost of the Banquet is approximately $20-$25 per person). Please prepare a short bio and presentation of the citizen for the Nominating Committee and bring it with you to the Banquet.

The Chamber considers any Lunenburg County citizen for nomination. The Chamber Board reserves the right to defer any award if they do not receive deserving nominations. The Chamber will announce winners at the Annual Meeting & Banquet in January and will publicize their honors through print and online media.
